

College posts hundreds of jobs

By James Campbell

Not only can the college help you find a job, but it can help you find a job that's right for you.

Many employers of last year's college seniors posted about 4,000 jobs on campus and 10,000 jobs on the Internet, according to Conestoga College. An average of 100 jobs are filled each year.

There are also 1,000 jobs posted by the students. Jobs posted are for internships, part-time and full-time positions in the business, health care, education, and other fields. Some of these jobs are for students and some are for graduates.

Book fair valuable to Conestoga teachers

By Jane Brown

Teachers from all Conestoga campuses joined forces for the Book Fair on May 16 to spend the afternoon in a book fair.

"I think it was successful," said all English teacher of the Learning Resources Centre, who reported that LRC, Conestoga School Campus, reported the event.

English and the book fair gave teachers the chance to meet with a lot of things to do and be able to see a lot of books in one day.

"It gives the faculty an opportunity to be able to come in and see and be able to see all different types of books different publishers in one day," she said.
